

Revolution IN FILM

How has revolution been portrayed in the cinema? Join us to see the ways that different cultures have handled this controversial topic.

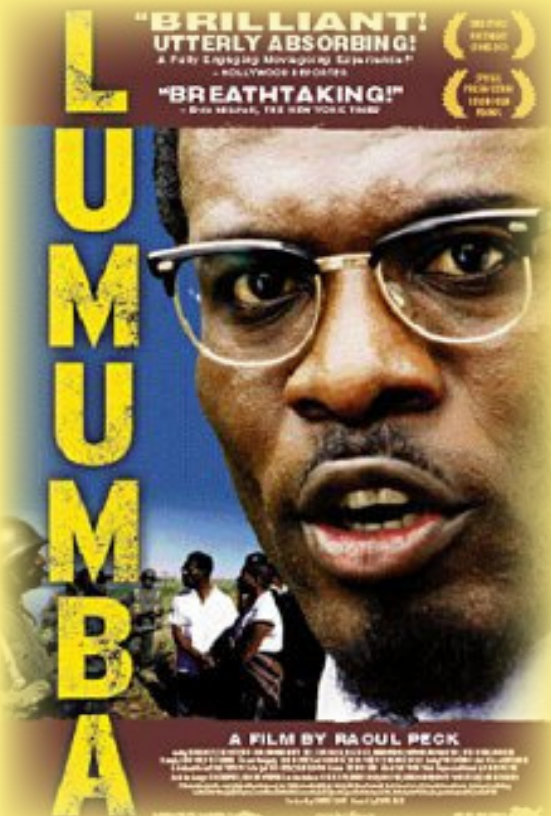

Kansas African Studies Center Presents:

Lumumba (2000)

Directed by Raoul Peck

Democratic Republic of the Congo

Monday, October 27
Woodruff Auditorium
7PM: Free: Open to the Public

The struggle for independence is the central issue in this film about Patrice Lumumba, the first Prime minister of the Democratic Republic of Congo. It chronicles the movement for independence from Belgium, and the struggles that Lumumba went through to maintain stability following independence.